

FAQ for the 2022 Talent Harvest Festival

Q: When and where is the Harvest Festival?

A: The Talent Harvest Festival is on Saturday October 1st from 10AM-4PM in Talent, Oregon.

Q: Who is organizing this event?

A: The 2022 Talent Harvest Festival is organized by the City of Talent, the Talent Business Alliance, and a team of community volunteers.

Q: How do I sign up to be a vendor?

A: To apply to be a vendor, fill out the Vendor Application. Click here for the Harvest Festival Vendor Guidelines.

Completed vendor applications should be emailed to the City of Talent at harvestfestival@cityoftalent.org or can be dropped off in-person at Talent City Hall (110 E Main St. Talent, OR 97540).

Q: How do I sign up to be a musician?

A: You can register to be a musician or musical group by completing the following online registration form: <https://forms.gle/W78zDPS9prywFiWe9>

Q: How do I participate in the Talent Harvest Festival Run?

A: The Talent Harvest Festival 5K and 10K Run, is organized by the Southern Oregon Runners, and you can register here: <https://runsignup.com/Race/OR/Talent/TalentHarvestFestival>

Q: Is there a parade?

A: Not this year. We are easing back into producing the Harvest Festival after a 2-year hiatus. Between new staff, a new festival committee, and volunteers new to the event, we are taking a year to get our feet under us before taking on the added (exciting) challenge of producing a parade. The Talent Harvest Festival parade is planned to return in 2023.

Q: Where should I park?

A: Parking for the event will be directed to the Talent Post Office, the Community Center & Seiber St Parking lots. Guests should note that East Main Street will be closed between Talent Avenue and Front Street.

Q: What should I bring?

A: Guests are encouraged to bring good walking shoes, water, a hat, and sunscreen!

Q: Is the event free?

A: Yes! All music and family activities are free. We have many local businesses and vendors with delicious food or amazing wares for sale though.
